1. GENERAL TERMS

1.1	This Decision shall stipulate the base for calculation of the fees and commissions for the services, the commission rates and the amount of the fees, as well as the method and the terms for calculating and charging the fees and commissions.
1.2	The Bank shall calculate the fees for the services to legal entities, residents and non-residents, for whom these services shall be performed. The contract for fulfilling certain banking issues has to include provisions concerning the fees.
1.3	The category Legal entities, referred to in the Decision on the Tariff for fees and commissions for services performed by Silk Road Bank AD Skopje, shall include both residential and non-residential legal entities, unless it is explicitly stated.
1.4	The category Consumers, referred to in the Decision on the Tariff for fees and commissions for services performed by Silk Road Bank AD Skopje, shall include both residential and non-residential individuals, unless it is explicitly stated.
1.5	RESIDENT - consumer shall be a person who has registered permanent address of residence in the RSM or temporarily resides in the RSM as per a valid residence visa, i.e. work visa which has to be valid for at least 6 months. All other consumers shall be considered NON-RESIDENTS. Also a consumer holding a Macedonian passport which contains foreign address of residence shall be considered a NON-RESIDENT.
1.6	RESIDENT - legal entities shall be trade companies, sole proprietors and other legal entities with registered address in the RSM and their branches abroad. NON-RESIDENTS shall be all other legal entities which are not defined as residents.
1.7	For the services which are not stipulated in this Tariff the Bank may determine the fee with an agreement between the Bank and the client.
1.8	The Bank may arrange flat sum instead of a fee for certain services.
1.9	In addition to the fees, the client shall pay VAT in all cases where VAT is to be paid according to the legal regulations.
1.10	In case of purchase of effective FX currency, the mean exchange rate from the indicative exchange rate list of the NBRSM on the day of concluding the transaction shall be applied.
1.11	The fees for performing services with foreign entities stated in this Tariff which are performed through other commercial banks in accordance with separately concluded agreements, shall be charged according to the tariffs of those banks.
1.12	The calculation of the fee for the FX services performed by the Bank for the clients-residents shall be done in MKD according to the mean exchange rate of the NBRSM for the relevant currency which is valid on the day of calculation.
1.13	The fees for the services performed by the Bank in the domestic and international payment services shall be calculated on a daily basis from the clients for each performed transaction by debiting the client's transactional account.
1.14	In case the client fails to use the service partially or completely due to any reasons whatsoever, the Bank shall not be liable to return the charged fee, except for the activities contained in point 11 hereof.
1.15	In addition to the fees stipulated with this Tariff, the Bank shall also charge real costs such as postal costs, taxes, other banks' costs, costs for establishing mortgage and pledge, court fees and other real costs.
